

... But I Don't Have Digital Images!

We want to ensure that every member has the opportunity to participate, so we've made special arrangements for you.

You can have your artwork photographed for the book by Eric Law, who specializes in photographing artwork for artists. The cost is $9.00 for three works or $15.00 for five works, and Eric will submit your images.

Contact Eric by phone at 248-398-6119 or by email at Studio@ShootMyArt.com if you have questions or to schedule an appointment.

You will still need to mail your Submission Form and fee by the July 31 deadline. Be sure to complete the information about each work you are submitting, including the title (as it should appear in the caption). You can leave the image file name and the photographer information blank.

Q: How do I know if my images are of high enough quality for publication?

A: A high-quality image will be sharp and evenly lit, have good contrast, and accurately show the tones and colors in the artwork. Avoid sending images with artwork that is crooked or was shot at an awkward angle or has distracting or colorful backgrounds and harsh shadows. In addition, the image must have at least 2400 pixels on the longer side (or 8" at 300 DPI) and a file size of at least 1 MB. These are the minimum requirements for publication. The editors reserve the right to exclude any images that are not of publication quality.

Q: How do I submit my images if Eric already has them?

A: If you are already one of Eric's clients, he can submit the images you select at no cost. You will still need to mail your Submission Form and fee by the deadline. Be sure to include the image file name (if different than the title).

Q: What if I've sold a work I want to submit and only have a slide or print?

A: If you only have a high-quality slide or print, you can arrange for Eric to scan it into digital format and submit the image. The cost is $3.00 for each scanned image.

Q: How do I submit my artwork if I have high-quality images, but I don't use email?

A: If you are unable to email your images, please contact Eric by phone at 248-398-6119 and he can assist you with your submission.
